Trinidad is concerned, as soon as we finish with this subject, except the testimony of Mother Jones, which we putting again to seek to introduce.
"For a state's rights man," interrupted Representative Byrnes of South Carolina. "For my part, I am opposed to any investigation of state elections."

Mr. Austin: "Do you expect this committee to do what your own district attorney has refused to do?"

Mr. Costigan: "In view of the remarks of Mr. Herrington regarding my own political affiliations—" Mr. Foster: "Those remarks will be stricken from the record."

Mr. Costigan: "Nevertheless, Mr.
Chairman, I wish to have the committee hear brief statements from Mr.
Lawson and Mr. McLennan on the view of the United Mine Workers regarding the bearing of these political conditions on the strike."

Mr. Austin: "Don't take up any more time. We've waited two hours already. Let's hear the witnesses."

Mr. Lawson was permitted to make a brief statement, during which a demonstration from the audience was checked by the sergeant at arms.

Mr. McLennan also addressed the committee.

Representative Byrnes made a formal statement, setting out his objections to the examination of affairs connected with state elections.

The chairman then announced luncheon recess, stating that the exact terms upon which the disputed evidence would be admitted would be made known at the afternoon session.

The executive order of Governor E.
M. Ammons, prohibiting the importation of strikebreakers into the Colorado coal fields, and its subsequent withdrawal by the governor, were mentioned at today's session of the strike investigation.

E. P. Costigan, in cross-examination of R. J. Copeland, formerly employed as an immigration agent by the Colorado Fuel & Iron company, sought to secure an admission that the withdrawal of the order was made in aid of an immigration project in which Mr. Copeland and the Joplin, Mo., firm of Prince & O'Neill were interested. The witness denied any knowledge of such an element having influenced the governor's action.

Judge J. G. Northcutt told the committee that the governor would appear in person and tell why he lifted the bar against the importation of strikebreakers.

The Copeland-Prince & O'Neill transaction first was mentioned in the strike investigation during the tender hearing when James Adams the first so-called poacher witness for the strikers, said he had come to Colorado on a contract to purchase land and had found himself employed as a coal miner. Copeland, in his direct examination last night, characterized Adams' testimony as false.

The question of alleged political activity by the large coal companies was brought up again today. M. A. Garner of El Moro, a veteran of the civil war and an old resident of southern Colorado, told the committee that he had known of employees of the coal companies working for certain candidates.

counsel regarding admissibility of evidence. Finally Fred Herrington suggested that E. P. Costigan was attempting to fight over again his unsuccessful campaign for governor in 1912. This brought a red-hot retort from Costigan.

"Mr. Herrington's insinuation was deliberately offensive," he told the committee. He then declared that the strikers proposed to prove that political conditions in southern Colorado had much to do with the calling of the coal strike.

DEPORTED LABOR LEADERS

ARRIVE IN ENGLAND
Gravesend, England, Feb. 24.—The ten labor leaders deported from South Africa last month after the general strike had been broken, landed here today from the steamship Ugeni.

The exiles, after declaring they would remain on board until the steamer returned to South Africa, revoked their decision, however, after a long conference with British labor leaders, who had arranged a great welcome for them.

INTIMOUS OPERATORS AND

MINERS FAIL TO AGREE

Philadelphia, Feb. 24.—Deadlocked for eight days, the sub-committee of the soft coal miners and operators of the central competitive district, which has been considering wage demands of the miners, decided late this afternoon that they could not agree and they adjourned to report to the full committee of 64 tomorrow.

It is likely that a recess will be taken and that the committee will meet at a date yet to be fixed.

MOTHER! IF CHILD'S

TONGUE IS COATED

If cross, feverish, constipated, bilious, stomach sour, give "California Syrup of Figs."

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation, poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleaning" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups.
Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Don't be fooled!

JUDGMENT DAY IN

DISTRICT COURT

Judge Reynolds Hands Down Decisions in Number of Bernalillo County Civil Suits.

Judge Reynolds today gave decisions and issued judgments in a number of Bernalillo county civil suits, the most important among them being in the case of the Citizens Bank of Albuquerque vs. J. Rex Stegall and A. L. Chesher. Judgment was given by default and the court named Ches.
S. Dennis as receiver for cattle given as security for loans made by the bank and on which the bank brought foreclosure proceedings, naming Monday, March 16th as the date on which the defendants are ordered to show cause why the receivership should not be continued.

Stegall and Chesher borrowed money from the bank, giving cattle as security under a chattel mortgage.
The defendants, it is alleged, attempted to ship the cattle out of the state and sell them in the Kansas City market. This, however, was stopped and the foreclosure proceedings followed.

The court gave judgment by default in the case of the Meyers company against Solomon Baca for $257.82 and ordered the sale of property held under a chattel mortgage to satisfy the judgment.

Judgment by default was given in the case of Jesus M. Sandoval vs.
Epimeno A. Miers in favor of the plaintiff for $436.25 and execution ordered to issue.

Judgment in favor of the plaintiffs was given in the case of Marron and Wood vs. J. J. White, being a suit on a note for $50.

The court was occupied this afternoon with hearing the case of Jesus M. Sandoval vs. Cornelio Sandoval, a Sandoval county case.

COLORADO SUPREME

COURT RULES FOR

ALAMOSA OFFICIALS

Denver, Feb. 24.—The state supreme court today handed down a ruling in favor of the officials of Ala-mosa county appointed by Governor Ammons shortly after the county was created by the last legislature. The case came before the supreme court on application for a writ of supersedes brought by officials appointed by the county commissioners, the appointees of the commissioners having been ousted by the decision of District Judge A. W. McLennan. The court denied the superse-des. The effect will be to give the governor's appointees the county offices.

NEW TRIAL GRANTED
TO LIEUTENANT
BECKER

Former New York Police Official, Under Death Sentence for Rosenthal Murder to Have Another Chance.

CONVICTIONS OF
GUNMEN AFFIRMED

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 24.—A new trial was granted Charles Becker, the former New York police lieutenant under death sentence for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, by the court of appeals. The court stood 6 to 1, Justice Weiner filing the only dissenting opinion.

The convictions of the four gunmen who appealed with Becker were unanimously affirmed.

Practically all responsibility for errors committed at the trial was placed on Justice Goff. The only serious error attributed to Justice Attorney Whitman was that in his opening address he referred to Becker as a "grafter." Becker not being on trial for grafting, it was held, the district attorney should not have made this statement because it might have prejudiced the jury.

The court said that it was impossible in an opinion to portray the unfavorable atmosphere that existed at the time of the trial, but pointed out some of the rulings of Justice Goff which were held to have prejudiced the defendant's case. Some of them follow:

At the opening of the case Justice Goff threatened to have Mr. McIntyre, senior counsel for Becker, removed by an officer because he objected to remarks of the district attorney.

Justice Goff frequently criticized Becker's counsel for trivial peculiarities in their forms of questions, intervened to protect the state's witnesses on cross-examination and on one occasion when Becker's counsel asked Mr. Whitman to concede a fact, the justice said: "No, I will not let him concede it."

The haste of the trial is also criticized.

Repeatedly Justice Goff refused to allow Becker's counsel to have papers they were entitled to that were in the possession of the district attorney, and some of the justice's rulings "passed beyond the limits of discretion and were erroneous as matters of law."

It was pointed out that Becker's counsel should have been given the fullest opportunity to cross-examine Rose, Webster, Vallon and Scheppe, who were in constant communication and conference with each other and were "conspired in the common understanding of attempting to save their own lives by placing in forfeit that of Becker."

WOOLWORTH STORE
TO BE OPENED IN ALBUQUERQUE

Representative of Great Chain of Five and Ten Cent Stores Here to Arrange for Building.

A representative of the great Woolworth chain of five and ten-cent stores, now extending all over the United States and the greatest business enterprise of the kind in the world, has been in Albuquerque for several days past studying business conditions here and has determined to open a Woolworth store here at once.

Definite announcement as to the opening of the new store will be made as soon as a building has been determined on. At present the representative of the Woolworth interests is considering several locations, including one on Central avenue, and it is believed that he will conclude his arrangements here at once.

The Woolworth stores, familiar to every newspaper and magazine reader and widely admired during the past year or two, or since the construction of the great Woolworth building in New York city, from the profits of the business, invariably seek live and growing communities and the location of one of the stores here is a cheerful index as to Albuquerque's future.

bbuquerque Lawyer for Defense.

Enrique Salas who murdered his father-in-law, Ross Garcia, a prominent Torreon county man, at his home in Torreon on February 14th, was given a preliminary hearing at Estancia this morning, waived examination and was bound over to await the action of the next Torreon county grand jury, without bail.

Salas' father came to Albuquerque Saturday and retained Attorney W.
C. Hancock to defend the young man.
Judge Hancock was unable to go to Estancia for the preliminary hearing, because of conflicting business, but will go to Estancia Friday.

MONEY FROM PUBLIC LAND SALES FOR
GOOD ROADS, PLAN

Washington, Feb. 24.—A new plan for good road development in the public land states without direct tax upon either federal or state treasuries, was proposed in a bill today by Senator Pittman of Nevada.

Money from the sale of 10 per cent of the surveyed public lands in each state would be used for building trunk highways.

NEW MOTOR CAR CO.
OPENS BUSINESS
IN ALBUQUERQUE

Hudson Motor Company of New Mexico to Have Beautiful Salesrooms on Central Avenue; Albuquerque Men in Charge.

The Hudson Motor company of New Mexico is the title of a new automobile sales organization which was completed today by Albuquerque men and which will open for business immediately in this city with the state agency for the magnificent Hudson automobile, one of the aristocrats of the automobile world.

The new company is organized by N. M. Cudabac, proprietor of the Model dry goods store at Central and Fourth street, and R. A. Pittman, for some time past connected with the Hudson automobile sales force here.
The company will open salesrooms at once at 211 West Central, using half of the large store room now occupied by the Model Dry Goods company.
The room will be purely a sales and display room, and will be handsomely and even luxuriously furnished, as a proper setting for the cars to be displayed there. The company's repair shops will be in the rear of the building but not connected with the sales rooms.

The Hudson Six is recognized as one of the leading automobiles of American manufacture and its introduction here through the new state agency is certain to result in an immediate popularity for the car, since it comes to the purchaser with a solid year's unqualified guarantee, the company's guarantee being that the car sold will be kept in perfect condition without charge for that length of time.

The Hudson company will have on display in the near future two types of the touring car, a roadster 17pe and a combination roadster and cab-riolet. The company will have the most attractive sales and display rooms in the state.

WARM DEBATE OVER

Washington, Feb. 24.—Senator Norris' resolution calling on the attorney general for certain information as to the status of negotiations for re-organizing of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad was warmly debated today in the senate. Senator Norris said someone had stolen $200,000,000. "I object to such loose statement as that, somebody has stolen $200,000,000," declared Senator Lippett of Rhode Island.

"If the senator means to say that the directors robbed the stockholders of the road, he is in great error. At the most there were only errors of judgment." The adjustment cannot go on satisfactorily if unwarranted statements of that kind are made."

Senator Norris declared if the senate had reached the point "where it was unwilling to throw light on the depression of a lot of pirates" it ought not to wonder at the existence of anarchy in the country. Senator Lodge said he would speak on the

SETTLERS ALLEGED INTIMIDATION BY
COWMEN

Understood That Several Complaints Have Been Made to United States Authorities from Pecos Country.

[Special Dispatch to Evening Herald] Roswell, N. M., Feb. 24.—It is understood here on good authority that several complaints have been filed with the United States authorities and that other charges are soon to be filed by homesteaders in the Pecos valley section charging intimidation on the part of cattlemen owning large herds and using range in this section of the state. It is difficult to obtain definite information as to the nature of the charges, as the settlers making them have been heard to state that they feared persecution should their activity in making the complaints become public. It is known that one homesteader charges that he has been made the defendant in complaints sworn to by cattlemen, which he alleges to be nothing but persecution.

Prominent cattlemen here assert that they know nothing of the matter, and that no cases of trouble between homesteaders and cattlemen have come to their notice. It is persistently rumored, however, that the complaints have been placed in the hands of the United States attorney at Albuquerque for investigation.
